Sometimes one kiss...

For five long years since the day he met Addison McClain, Maikao Iona has been making every excuse in the book as to why he can't date anyone. But the real reason is the fact he fell hard for her the day he laid eyes on her...er, assets by accident during a charity fundraiser. The issue? He knows if he comes remotely close to telling her how he feels that she'll run faster than an Olympian the moment the words "I love you" leave his mouth. So Maikao has to be crafty, he has to be smooth, he has to...well, damn it, he has to go claim his woman, who is now determined to date one of their mutual friends.

Is all it takes...

Every second that Addison McClain is in Maikao Iona's presence feels right. Something that wasn't so confusing when they were simply best friends. Yet now things have grown, changed, molded into a relationship that doesn't feel so ... friendly anymore. Past history tells her that she isn't remotely what Maikao is looking for. The question is—why does her fireman lose his ever-loving mind every time she mentions dating someone else?
