Luther shistory, in its connection with Pro testantism. Martin Luther was born in the year 1483, at I sleben, in Saxony. His father, who had wrought in the mines of Mansfield, became afterwards a proprietor in them; which enabled him to educate his son, not only with a pious fathers care, but with a rich fathers liberality. After furnishing him with the elements in some inferior schools, he sent him at an early age to the University of Erfurth: where he made considerable proficiency in classical learn ing, eloquence and philosophy, and commenced Master of Arts at the age of twenty. His parents had destined him for the bar; but after devoting himself diligently to the study of the civil law for some time, he forsook it ab ruptly, and shut himself up in a convent at Erfurth. Here he became remarkable for his diligence, self-morti fication and conscientiousness ;occasionally suffering great agitation of mind from an ignorant fear of God.
