Can't Let Go Michelle Brewer

After having her heart broken, Abby spent the next several years moving on with her life: going back to school, finding a job, making a new life with a new man—all the while happily watching her best friend live the dream. Until one brief phone call sends her reeling. Following the death of their best friends, Abby Lewis and Logan Sheppard are reunited for the first time since the morning he'd walked out on her all those years ago. Through their grief, they are forced to confront the feelings they once had for each other and ask the question...is it finally time to let go?
