Dreams of Days Gone Bye Zachary E. Fischer

Zachary Edwin Fischer (March 20, 1989 - January 22, 2014) had always wanted to write and publish his own collection of poetry and stories. He had written a large amount of poetry and had much to say on his wanderings through life. He was working on this collection of poetry when his life came to a tragic end. He was known to have written bursts of poetry on his cell phone, note pad and any other form whenever inspiration took hold. He was known to have written long and short poetry pieces that spoke volumes about a new generation of poets. He spoke of the lighter and sometimes darker side of this generations view of themselves, friends and family. Fischer explored the elements that encircled him in his everyday life. This included his passion for the New Mexico wilderness while pursuing Forrest Fenn's legendary lost chest of treasure. In his short life he studied aviation mechanics and studied becoming an EMT when he helped save the life of a motor vehicle accident victim.
