At university it all seemed so simple; Sarah and Cahal would conquer the world. But Cahal was from the wrong side of the tracks, and when family pressures mounted, the couple weren't as brave as they hoped they'd be. Fast-forward twenty years... Sarah, divorced mum of two children and a successful career woman, has never truly been happy. To complicate matters further, her ex-husband Ian is still in love with her and is on the verge of trying everything he can to get her back. Cahal flew to Australia to escape his rough background and had expected Sarah to come with him. When a chance meeting reunites the couple, old but not forgotten feelings resurface.
