In the second part of this three part series Rysen Morris, to her surprise, finds that she enjoys being back in her hometown and has quickly settled into life living and working with her sister in the Spirit of the Soul wine store.

Having reconnected with her high school sweetheart things were going well. Of course, things weren't perfect but they were just close enough to make her happy.

So when Christina admits that money is going missing from the store and then starts acting strange and looking really sick Rysen becomes alarmed.

What is happening to her sister? Is it just the flu or is it something more sinister?

Teaming up with Brandon once again Rysen is determined to find out!
