Heather always knelt at the altar, but never like this.

Thrown against the altar, it breathed heavily at me as a devilish grin spread across its face. I couldn't believe I was going to desecrate the church I grew up in with these beasts.

Showing up to church early this Sunday to pray about her unclean desires, Heather finds out there is more pleasure in Church than simple scriptures and singing.

Knocked unconscious after opening the doors to the church, Heather finds herself bound to the altar as hands start to run up her Sunday dress...

These large beasts may have two vibrating shafts, but will Heather be able to finish her business before the congregation show up for the church service? Will her prayers be answered or will she simply black out from the pleasure?
