Description Seeds planted by the dark wizard Gault took root and the people abandoned the Quest of the Covenant. Arii's power weakened and then failed. The peace of that idyllic, legendary time ended. Gwaum rose in a fury, toppling the Kingdom of Acerland creating a power void soon filled by Bort, the new Pirate King. He attained the magic Sword of Vin when the pirates captured the fleeing crew and passengers of the ship, Queen Sand. Bort used to power of the sword to become the Pirate King. Bort lost no time in conquering four of the five remaining kingdoms of Island World. Only Torne remained. An eighteen-year-old son of a miller was the only impediment to Bort realizing his ambitions. The miller's son was more than he appeared. He was the lost Prince Bearl who had a claim to the magic Sword of Vin. The fate of Island World depended upon whom the magic sword would choose as its master. The Pirate King is the fifth novel of the epic high fantasy adventure series, Tales of Island World. In this epic high fantasy series, the Wizards of the Golden Star battle the legendary beast Gwaum and other threats to enchanted Island World.
