21st Century Series for Clarinet Transcribed and edited by Richard Stoltzman. These two Sonatines composed by Schubert in March of 1816 receive relatively little attention from violinists. Richard Stoltzman thankfully decided to transcribe them for the clarinet. The felicitous and satisfying quality of the works is perfect for the clarinet as they are full of memorable melodies contained in a formal clarity, that is nevertheless full of harmonic surprises. This edition includes a CD recording of Richard Stoltzman and the pianist Richard Goode performing them. This is a world premiere edition never before published, Richard Stoltzman World class clarinetist Richard Stoltzman's virtuosity, technique, imagination and communicative power have revolutionized the world of clarinet playing, opening up possibilities for the instrument that no one could have predicted. He was responsible for bringing the clarinet to the forefront as a solo instrument, and is still the world's foremost clarinetist. Stoltzman gave the first clarinet recitals in the histories of both the Hollywood Bowl and Carnegie Hall; and, in 1986, became the first wind player to be awarded the Avery Fisher Prize. As one of today's most sought-after artists, Stoltzman has been a soloist with more than a hundred orchestras as well as a recitalist and chamber music performer, innovative jazz artist and prolific recording artist. A two-time Grammy Award winner, he has amazed critics and audiences alike in a repertory spanning many musical genres. Note: The contained CD is for listening, not for play-along.
