A daughter will do anything for her mother...even if it means stealing somebody else's identity...

Disney Sparks is tired of working at her family's hotel business. After much consideration and a near run-in with trouble, she decides to become the executive secretary to one of the most feared women in California--- Juliana Santiago. Juliana can't keep an assistant for anything, and many are already predicting Disney not to last long under her new superior. Once she begins working, she realizes Juliana gives 'the boss from hell' a new meaning.

From running to fetch coffee in two minutes to ensuring that her office is spotless, Disney is running out of patience and sanity. When Juliana announces that she will be going to Paris, Disney and her friends looks at it as their time to shine. Being the executive secretary, Disney can control every aspect of Juliana's life with the push of a button. Before long, Disney has hijacked her employer's life and is riding it all the way to the top.

Unfortunately, her new luxuries are cut short when she's kidnapped for a crime that Juliana committed. Now held hostage until further notice, Disney is praying for a miracle. Will she understand the meaning of 'grown folks business' before it's too late?

Tayah Nicole Parker continues to thrill readers as 'The Devil Wears Prada' meets 'Identity Thief' in a new novel from the bestselling author of Scandal and Deception...
