Supplement and General Index (History of United States Naval Operations in World War II) (v. 15)

Samuel Eliot Morison

This spectacular fifteen-volume series that charts the U.S. Naval operations during World War II with an insider's perspective. Morison, a Harvard professor, was given a special rank and writing post by FDR. He had active duty aboard eleven different ships, allowing him to witness many crucial battles in both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. This supplemental volume to Professor Morison's series includes the story of postwar operations of the Navy in the Pacific, a list of all named ships in the U.S. Navy during World War II, a list of important errata discovered in Volumes I-XIV and a general index to Volume I-XIV. Filled with many maps and file photographs.
