All Leigh wants is to be taken hard and fast in the bedroom, but her boyfriend makes her do all the work while he lays there. After she finds a box of adult baby supplies in the garage, she decides it's time to leave him. She wants a real baby, not a boyfriend pretending to be one.

She goes to her family's empty mansion to stay for a few days. Her Hollywood starlet mother is filming and won't be home for some time, and her newest husband Donovan is supposed to be off on a business trip. But when Leigh puts on one of her mother's slips and begins to watch a very naughty movie in the master bedroom, the man of the house returns and discovers her.

He's tall, dark, and miserable in his chaste, childless marriage. And Leigh is a beautiful, willing young woman in his bed. It's wrong but greater forces are driving them into each other's arms . . . and nothing will pry them apart.
