WHO'S RIDING RED? Phillipa Redmond (Little Red Riding Hood) has lost her entire family to a terrible plague. When the survivors from her village are evacuated to the country, Phillipa has no choice but to flee with them. But in the forest lurks something much more deadly than a killing sickness. The gentry call him Wulf, and he's said to be the cruelest, most vile monster imaginable--a soulless demon who tortures his prey. When Phillipa is kidnapped by Wulf and held hostage by his pack of wolves in an enchanted forest, she finds out that there's a very fine line between pleasure and pain, and she has to decide once and for all if she feels more at home with the humans who want her title and riches, or with the monsters who want to worship her body for eternity. GOLDILOCKS AND THE THREE BEHRS Victoria Goldenrod (Goldilocks) is forced to leave the security of her wealthy family and embark on a journey to the Wild West. Her wagon train is robbed at gunpoint while Victoria is out on a walk through the forest, and she's the only survivor to the brutal killings. She's also the only witness, and she needs a place of refuge where the Blackstone Gang can't find her. Victoria stumbles across a cottage deep in the forest and makes herself at home, assuming the family is away on a trip, but what she finds in her bed when she awakens the next morning could be more than she's prepared to handle. The Behr family isn't like others. And they'll do anything to make sure Victoria becomes one of their own. Even if every one of them have to seduce her.
