Louder Than Words (Fall For Me) Melanie Marks

When seventeen year old Summer Baker is stalked by her obsessed ex-boyfriend she's forced to ask for help from her secret weapon—her “bad-boy” ex-friend, Mason ... but that's a lot of ex's. Also, Summer's not sure her heart can take re-connecting with Mason. Mason who had once—no matter how brief of time—been her “stepbrother.” Mason with his smokin' hotness and lingering stare.

Still, Summer is forced to call on him, and he comes to her rescue. Just like she knew he would. But the problem is: Summer has always had a secret crush on Mason. But—whoa!—suddenly he's looking at her all hungry and longing-like. And he says all the right words to get her heart spazzing. It almost has her thinking he craves her too. Almost. But let's face it, actions speak louder than words and Mason has put out zero action ... unless you're talking about action with other girls. He's put out plenty of that. Grrr! He breaks girls' hearts at lightening speed and has made-out with every hot girl at their school ... that is, every hot girl except Summer. Because in Mason's mind, Summer is off-limits. But that bites.
