Love And Then Some Stephen B. Oates

On the surface, it seems like high school history teacher Charley Bishop has it all together. He was voted 1976 Teacher of the Year and featured in the New York Times, and he married a beautiful girl with a promising future. But underneath, trouble is brewing in Charley and Nicole's marriage.

Now, facing the prospect of a nasty divorce, Charley is filled with depression and self-doubt, wondering where it all went wrong. And just when it seems as if he might never find happiness again, the affections of a beautiful French teacher give him hope for the future—though not everyone is thrilled about this new development.

Soon, Charley finds himself torn in a dramatic struggle between two women—one he thought was the love of his life, and one who could represent the best of things to come. As he nears a final decision, he's thrown a curveball that could change everything—forcing him to face the possibility of ending up with nothing at all.
