This volume contains the papers presented at the 23rd Canadian Conference on Artificial Intelligence (AI 2010). The conference was held in Ottawa, Ontario, from May 31 to June 2, 2010, and was collocated with the 36th Graphics Interface

Conference (GI 2010), and the 7th Canadian Conference on Computer and Robot Vision (CRV 2010). The Program Committee received 90 submissions for the main conference,

AI 2010, from across Canada and around the world. Each submission was reviewed by up to four reviewers. For the final conference program and for inclusion in these proceedings, 22 regular papers, with allocation of 12 pages each, were selected. Additionally, 26 short papers, with allocation of 4 pages each, were accepted. The papers from the Graduate Student Symposium are also included in the proceedings: six oral (four pages) and six poster (two pages) presentation papers. The conference program featured three keynote presentations by Dekang Lin (Google Inc.), Guy Lapalme (Université de Montréal), and Evangelos Milios (Dalhousie University). The one-page abstracts of their talks are also included in the proceedings. Two pre-conference workshops, each with their own proceedings, were held on May 30, 2010. The Workshop on Intelligent Methods for Protecting Privacy and Confidentiality in Data was organized by Khaled El Emam and Marina Sokolova. The workshop on Teaching AI in Computing and Information Technology (AI-CIT 2010) was organized by Danny Silver, Leila Kosseim, and Sajid Hussain. This conference would not have been possible without the hard work of many people. We would like to thank all Program Committee members and external reviewers for their effort in providing high-quality reviews in a timely manner. We thank all the authors of submitted papers for submitting their work, and the authors of selected papers for their collaboration in preparation of the final copy.

Many thanks to Ebrahim Bagheri and Marina Sokolova for organizing the Graduate Student Symposium, and chairing the Program Committee of the symposium. We are in debt to Andrei Voronkov for developing the EasyChair conference management system and making it freely available to the academic world. It is an amazingly elegant and functional Web-based system, which saved us much time.
