101 Things Every Boy and Young Man of Color Should Know

101 Things Every Boy/Young Man Should Know offers a fresh perspective. The snippets of wisdom presented in this book are examples of what the African proverb "it takes a village to raise a child really means--men reaching back to young boys to provide a lifeline in a world that all too often disregards the potential that lies within. 101 offers these young men--some fatherless, and some not, some working to correct past mistakes, and some ready to make a positive impact in their families and communities--solutions to the many challenges confronting their lives.
