PERFECT Peter Raffo

We all want a better world for our children; it's a given that we want an even better world for theirs.

PERFECT - creating a better future with of course just a little soupçon of a twist. Ok, it's a little more than that; people are still people after all but a lot has been achieved and explained.

- World population control.
- Climate control.
- Unifying Language.
- Work and benefits for all.
- Health reforms.
- Wildlife issues.
- Energy.
- Education inequality.
- Inequity.
- Drug abuse.
- Paedophiles and prison reform.
- Taming sports cheats.
- Miley Cyrus a world treasure.

Now one would think it would be difficult to have a more perfect world, I mean what could the greedy B&^%#d's mess up now?

A tale that includes awkward sexual encounters, extreme cynicism and a bit of a thriller thrown in, this compelling book of how the world might be if we are bold enough - what was that - to go boldly where..... probably where angels fear to tread. A book that is almost devoid of heroes, bar Miley of course; but she's long in the past, so one thing they obviously haven't managed is eternal life, on earth at least.

You may be surprised by what 'Perfect' is; a light flight of fancy and impeccable logic accompanied by those thoughts that some think but then deny thinking; actions some desire but do not action.
