Sex, Sin and Satisfaction in the Classroom Dr. Ed Hibler

Dr. Ed, in drawing on more than ten years of classroom experiences, brings direct answers to his students' anonymously written questions about sex, including sex and moral behavior, sex in history, sex in religion and the Church, homosexuality, sexual anatomy and physiology, sexual techniques, contraception and fertility, venereal diseases and innumerable others too broad to classify. These questions from students of all adult ages, from 17 to over 80, and Dr. Ed's shrewd and insightful answers, are eye-openers; Readers say, "It is unbelievable that so many adults of college age, and even oldsters, could be so ignorant about such a critical part of living;" "I thought I knew it all. . . This book is an adventure in discovery. . . "Wow, readers will be stunned; this is a must read!"
