What will happen the moment after I take my last breath on earth? Is there life after life? If so, where is it and how do I get there?

All these unanswered questions leave us uneasy. Instead of living in assurance, we spend our days doubting the afterlife or wondering where we'll end up when we die. In order not to think about these things, we do our best to entertain and distract ourselves.

We dislike silence because it causes us to think too deeply. We shy away from even discussing the topic of death or dying because our uncertainty makes us feel anxious and uncomfortable. It's so much better just to talk about sports, the weather, or the cute puppy video we saw on Facebook.

It doesn't need to be this way.

We can be sure. We can know, without any doubt, where we will be the moment after we take our last breath.
