A fear of death is a common concern among all of us. Even those of us with a strong faith in God's limitless mercy and love may fear the process of dying. In this gentle companion, hospice nurse Kathy Kalina addresses the physical, emotional, and spiritual challenges experienced by those who live in the shadow of a terminal illness and shows us the path to peace so that we can live fully at the end of our lives.

This book received an "Excellence in Publishing Award" in the General Interest category from the Association of Catholic Publishers.

"While the journey of death is a private affair, all who walk this path with others and who will one day face it themselves, will profit from Kalina's steady and common sense insights on the journey Home." -Catholic Library World
