The Osmonds: The official story of the Osmond family Paul H Dunn

This book contains the true story of a remarkable family and group of entertainers. The author has captured the fun and the fascination of show business, along with its more serious moments, as these have made their impact upon this family. There emerges a heart-warming, intensely readable account of the Osmonds' route to success, from the earliest beginnings to current days of multiple gold-record status and international fame. Accompanied by many photographs.
