Excerpt from An Arrangement of the Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs of Isaac Watts

For offering this pocket edition of Watts and Rippon to the public, and particularly to the Baptists denomination, the publisher is confident that no apology will be required. In May, 1827, the first improved edition of Watts and Rippon was published; since which, there have been about thirty thousand copies published. About five years ago the denomination called for a large or pulpit size, which the publisher gave as soon as circumstances would admit; and within the last two years a loud call has been made for a pocket edition; and the publisher, always anxious to accommodate the denomination and the public, has had a handsome edition prepared, which is here presented to the denomination for their approbation. This edition corresponds precisely with the large and middle sizes.
