Fanning The Flames: Well Hung Firemen (A Hot Gay Romance) (Hard Tools Book 2) Savannah Quinn

Firefighter Michael Alexander wakes up with a sore head and a throbbing bottom. Memories of the night before are reverberating around in his mind, and the only person he can think of is his lover - Gareth.

Michael was drunk last night from a cocktail of lust and adrenaline but, now that the excitement has worn off will he be able to accept Gareth back into his bed?

Michael goes for a shower, to wash his backside and ponder on his options. When he returns from lathering his naked flesh he finds that he has several distressing messages, but it is when he gets a phone call from Mitch that he realizes something has gone terribly wrong.

Armed with only a sharp-tongue and a righteous heart, Michael must try to disarm an axe-wielding madman and protect the lives of his closest friends.

This was to be the day that he finally told his colleagues the truth about his relationship, but will he live long enough to reveal his secret love affair?
