- A True Story of Cerebral Deceit - Check out the exclusive video here to see what shocked the world: <http://youtu.be/xeEktVkZ78E> Experience a year in the life of a psychologically disturbed mask maker from the quaint regions of Venice who, since the tender age of 9, lived behind a mask. His graphic confessions focus on the adverse effects this had on him and the worlds around him. Live every moment through his unique point of view as recorded in his own words within this private diary. Each page vividly depicts his own darkly tainted perspectives of the alternate realities he's trapped within. Even his day to day life becomes grimly extraordinary when he is continuously faced by the relentless adversarial plagues of his own mind. It is up to the reader to ultimately determine which events were real, and which were among his intricate delusional perceptions. These accounts are highly intriguing and best if read several times and discussed with an avid reading group. There is so much to ponder upon and study within its rich contents that it could easily take a lifetime to finally decipher the "true story" for yourself. You are now holding in your hands the unearthed discovery of the century and a vital piece of psychological gold. This diary also serves as a valuable medical tool for study by offering a rare documented insight into the demented mind of an undiagnosed man who lived freely amongst others in an imprisoned world of his own mind's betrayal. Nothing you have ever read before could prepare you for these sickly fascinating and unparalleled journeys that await! This is an ingenious puzzle that may just unlock the true secrets of reality itself! ...As long as you can maintain your own sanity by the end of the process! Brace yourself! The following material you are about to read are the actual accounts word for word straight off the lost pages from the twisted mask maker's diary. "I have obtained several uncanny diaries at an estate sale that were locked in an old trunk along with some disturbing masks that were made by this same man. I have decided to publish his first diary for the world's curious viewing pleasure. I'm positive that this diary will not allow you to put it down just as I could not when I had first opened it. It will continue to thrill your dark curiosities page after page! I have read all of his diaries I acquired and I'm still disturbed by this man's secret confessions and graphic accounts of insanity."
