Omusongu Alexander Gordon

'The first rule of the game is that it is not a game.' A crippled schoolboy with a brain surpassing Einstein. A secret society which predicts the onslaught of the Apocalypse. A trip to the depths of Africa where mystical revelations lead to the unimaginable.

'Omusongu' is a fiction novel which explores the way a group of schoolboys deal with a wealth of phenomena as diverse as art, divinity, the internet, politics, music, philosophy, sex, drugs and existentialism, against a background of sixties London, all seen through adolescent eyes.

It is also a brutally well-argued critique of the current descent of the western world into the cult of unbridled monetarism. Lots of dialogue. Some literary erotica. A book which questions everything... science, reality and even rationality. You have been warned!
