The apostle Paul charged the Church to never be lacking in zeal, which compels believers to a life of radical service. Zeal is one of the greatest virtues that we could possibly pass on to the next generation—a zeal for the lost, a zeal for God's glory, a zeal for His presence, a zeal for godly marriages and families, and a zeal for revival and reformation. Godly zeal will sustain moves of God more than human passion ever could and will energize believers until they have completed their God-given assignment on this earth.

In this book you will learn how to:

Cultivate a dreaming heart
Clear out distractions
Receive vision to pursue God with all diligence
Abide in God's fullness with fiery and lasting zeal
Serve in the spirit of Jesus
Obtain the promises of God
See God's kingdom come in the nations of the world

Prepare to have zeal redefined, reemphasized, and made practical so that you are transformed into a zealous servant of Jesus and His ever-advancing kingdom!
